

Glover & Howe Ltd Terms of Business Agreement.

The purpose of this document is to set out the basis of the agreement under which we conduct our business and offer services to you. Please read and retain this document for future reference.

1. The Financial Conduct Authority (FCA)

The FCA is the independent watchdog that authorises and regulates the financial services. Use this information to decide if our services are right for you.

2. Whose Products do we offer?

We only offer products from a range of insurers for both commercial and personal lines insurance. We only offer a product provided by Alps Insurance Ltd for Motor & Household Legal Services or DAS Commercial Legal Services

3. Which Service will we provide you with?

We will advise and make a recommendation for you after we have assessed your needs for Motor & Household Insurance. For other insurances we may ask you some questions to narrow down the selection of products that we will provide details on. You will then need to make your own choice about how to proceed. Our services also include – arranging your insurance cover with insurers that meet your requirements, and helping you with any future changes you have to make.

4. Our Income and Charges

Our income is arrived from the following: commission paid by the insurer to us once funds are clear and prior to the payment of premium/ Profit share where we operate scheme business and have delegated authority we may receive a profit share from the insurance. As a general rule we do not charge you a fee for arranging an insurance policy in the very rare case we do we will all ways confirm this to you in writing prior to you commencing with the policy. You are entitled, at any time, to request information regarding any commission which we may have received as a result of placing or renewing your insurance cover. We confirm that our commission is earned at the inception of the policy we are entitled to keep amount in proportionate to the time on cover. For cancelled premiums under £100 there will be no return of commission and a minimum £10 admin fee.

We reserve the right to make charges in addition that are made by the insurers to cover general administration of your policy.

They are as follows: bounced cheques £10 each; replacement of lost documents £10; the arranging of new policies, mid-term adjustments and renewal of policies minimum £5 to a maximum of £50. Mid-term cancellation of policies In the event of an adjustment that results in a return of premium or cancellation mid- term there may be a return premium depending on the type of insurance , which we will refund to you net of our full commission and £25 administration fee, along with any premium owed by you and charges that may be made by insurers. In relation to commercial insurance, you are entitled to request information regarding our commission that we have received from insurers for transacting your insurance policy.

Where a Policy is cancelled during a year of a claim is met, there is no return of premium.

5. Client Money – Insurer Account

The FCA rules are designed to protect you in the event that an insurance intermediary fails or is unable to transfer: any premium money it has received from you to the insurer any claims or return premium monies that it has received from the insurer to you

We are governed by strict rules pertaining to client money, set down by the FCA. Where we hold monies in a client bank account we may earn interest on monies held, which will be retained by us.

Further information about the compensation scheme arrangements is available from FSCS.

11. Your Duty to disclose information

It is your responsibility to provide complete information when you take out an insurance policy throughout the life time and the renewal of the policy. It is important that you ensure all statements you make on the proposal, statement of facts or claims forms and other documents are true and accurate. If a document is completed on your behalf it is important that you check the information is true and accurate and always advise us immediately if it is not .Failure to notify us or the insurer of information (including county court judgements (CCJS), criminal convictions (excluding motor convictions), bankruptcy and insolvencies etc, or change of circumstance this could influence Underwriters to offer terms or worst still invalidate the cover resulting in a claim not met. If you are in doubt of something being a material fact or offer up information that may be relevant you should declare it.

12. Non Commercial Client: Your Responsibilities.

The terms of any insurance that we arrange on your behalf will be based upon the information provided by you to us or to your insurers.

If you are a consumer (an individual buying insurance wholly or mainly for purposes unrelated to your trade, business or profession) you must take reasonable care to answer all questions put to you about your proposed insurance fully, honestly and to the best of your knowledge. If you do not understand the meaning of any question, or if you do not know the answer, it is vital that you tell us. Once cover has been arranged, you must immediately notify us or your insurer of any change to the information that has been previously provided. The most serious consequence of failing to provide full and accurate information before you take out insurance, or when your circumstances change, could be the invalidation of your cover. In that instance it would mean that a claim will be rejected.

13. Commercial Clients: Your responsibilities

You are responsible for providing complete and accurate information which insurers require in connection with any proposal for insurance even at renewal or during the life of the policy. You have a duty to give a fair presentation of risk to the insurer. You should disclose every material circumstance relevant to the risk being insured following a reasonable search within your business to identify and verify such information. This should include information which you and, where applicable, your senior management, persons responsible for arranging your insurance or other relevant third parties know or ought to know. It should include all information that would influence the judgement of the insurer or that would put the insurer on notice that it needs to make further enquiries. You must check all details on any proposal form or Statement of Facts and pay particular attention to any declaration you may be asked to sign. It is important that you read all insurance documents issued to you and ensure that you are aware of the cover, limits and other terms that apply. Particular attention must be paid to any warranties and conditions as failure to comply with them could invalidate your policy or mean that claims may not be paid. Failure to abide provide correct information could invalidate your insurance. If in any doubt of your responsibilities please contact us immediately.

Examples of material circumstances are:

- Special or unusual circumstances relating to the risk;
- Any particular concerns which led you to seek insurance cover for the risk
